

Patricia Russo (Executive Director of The Campaign School at Yale)

PRESS RELEASE:

HS Girls' Leadership Training with Patti Russo

Saturday, October 9th 12-2pm

Ridgefield Town Hall

Free

Generously underwritten by Fairfield County Community's Foundation

Patricia Russo, Executive Director of The Women's Campaign School at Yale, is a nationally recognized leader focused on improving the quality of life for women in CT and the United States. Patti coaches women to run for public office and has been a guiding force for the Ms President US program since its beginning.

If you are a high school student interested in attending this free leadership training, please RSVP. Join us to learn what it takes to own your own power, present like a pro, and have fun while you are doing it - come learn from the BEST!

Each attendee will take home a special book (Amanda Gorman is one of Patti's mentees) and a certificate of participation in a 2-hour Leadership Training signed by Patti Russo (awesome for resumes and college applications).

The Campaign School at Yale is a nonpartisan, issue-neutral political campaign training program for women interested in running for public office, as well as for women interested in campaign management.

Fairfield County's Community Foundation promotes philanthropy as a means to create change in Fairfield County, focusing on innovative and collaborative solutions to critical issues impacting the community.